Notes for Henry C CARPENTER:

HENRY C. CARPENTER, who is highly esteemed and respected throughout the community where he lives, is an intelligent and progressive citizen who gives much thought to the questions of the day. He makes his home on section 18, Ridge Township, Shelby County. His father was Israel Carpenter, who was born in Lancaster, Pa., and his mother, Susan Hess, was probably born in Pennsylvania of German parentage, was also the father. The father died when about fifty-two years old, the mother at the age of ninety-one years. The parents of our subject came to Shelby County, Ill., from Delaware County, Ohio, about 1837, and settled in Shelbyville, where they resided for a few months. Later they removed to a point north of Shelbyville near the fair grounds and then made their home in Okaw Township, where the father passed from earth. His widow died at the residence of our subject in Ridge Township some years later. They had eleven children, of whom our subject is the fifth in order of age. Henry C. Carpenter was born in Delaware County, Ohio, October 1, 1825, and hence was about twelve years old when he came to Shelby County, Ill., with his parents. Here he grew to manhood and spent most of his early life with the exception of four years which he passed in Sangamon County. He was reared upon the farm and has made agricultural pursuits his chief business in life. The marriage of Mr. Carpenter in Ridge Township, September 30, 1852, brought him as a wife Miss Sarah Downs, daughter of Electious and Mary Ann (Stiffler) Downs. For particulars in regard to the history of this prominent family the reader is referred to the life sketch of J. H. Downs which appears on another page of this volume. Mrs. Carpenter was the fourth in a family of eight children, and first saw the light December 28, 1831, in Washington County, Md. She came to Shelby County, Ill., with her parents in 1845, and here grew to a beautiful and vigorous young womanhood in Ridge Township. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are the parents of nine children namely: George W., who married Mary F. McDonald and died at the age of twenty-two; Electious who took to wife Clara Worthman; Willie who passed away in infancy; James W., who married Sarah M. Jones; Sarah Ann the wife of O. J. Engle; John Alonzo who took to wife Ida Bruner; Ira W.; Mary Ellen, who died in infancy, and Nora J. Our subject filled efficiently and satisfactorily the office of Supervisor of Ridge Township for two terms, and has also been Road Overseer and School Director. He formerly took an active part in political affairs but is independent in his party affiliations. He is liberal in his religious views and interested in all progressive ideas. His splendid tract of five hundred and seventeen acres, most of which is located in Ridge Township bears every sign of the hand of a thorough, systematic and industrious farm manager. An obituary published in the Shelbyville Democrat on November 18, 1926 for James A. Montgomery, former superintendent of schools of Shelby County and for many years a teacher in country schools, states that he had died at his home in Shelbyville, Friday [November 12, 1926]. Mr. Montgomery was born in Parke County, Indiana, February 2, 1854, his parents John B. and Maria Allen Montgomery moving to Illinois in 1850. He moved to Windsor with his parents in 1863, where his father practiced medicine until his death May 3, 1889. James A. Montgomery attended the public school of Windsor and later entered Lincoln University at Lincoln, Ill., and afterwards attended Westminster College at Fulton, Mo. He taught school in most of the towns and villages of Shelby County and was principal of the schools at Windsor, Stewardson and Herrick. In 1894 he was elected superintendent of schools of Shelby County and served in that office for eight years. After his two terms in office, Mr. Montgomery resumed teaching. In November, 1901, Mr. Montgomery was united in marriage to Miss Georgia Carpenter, daughter of George and Mary E. Carpenter. Besides his wife, there were three sons and a daughter; Leonard Montgomery, a student at Rose Polytechnic Institute, Terre Haute; John Montgomery, Paul Montgomery and Mildred Hazel Montgomery, all of Shelbyville. For many years Mr. Montgomery was active in democratic politics. He was also a member of the Christian Church, the Masonic, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Modern Woodmen lodges. Funeral services were conducted at the First Christian Church, Rev. O. P. Wright of Herrick, officiating. The Masonic Lodge had charge of the services at the grave in Glenwood Cemetery.
